2007 NBHA World Rules

- No Refunds. (Exception vet out rule 12 below)
- NBHA dress code and hat rule will be enforced.
- A maximum of three gate calls will be given after which time a participant will be disqualified.
- Any participant who competes out of turn will be disqualified.
- An electronic timer and back up will be used for all rides. Should the timer and back up not function, a rerun will be granted immediately after the event is complete for the day and after a drag or at the Show Manager's discretion.
- There will be no reruns given if a horse falls.
- Knocking over a barrel will result in a no time.
- No signs, banners or posters shall be displayed, and no business shall be conducted, without prior approval of the Show Manager.
- A horse and rider combination may not change draw position under any circumstances.
- No rider substitutions.
- Horse substitutions must be received in the show office before you compete.
- Any vet out must be received in writing at the NBHA show office no later than 14 days prior to the event beginning. NBHA will retain the processing fee and stall fees if applicable. 70 percent of the entry fees paid will be returned to the entrant.
- Payout will be 70 percent of the entry fees to the jackpot. Added money will be pro rated per class, then split evenly per division.
- Prizes will be awarded after all competition is complete for the entire show. If you are not present to accept your award, the NBHA cannot guarantee that you will receive your prizes.
- A horse may only run once per class, exception section A, rule 12 of the NBHA Rule Book.
- Any questions or disputes that may arise during the show not covered by the rules, will be settled by the Show Manager whose decision will be final.
- Number to the finals-

	Teen	Youth
of Finalists	160	120
- Payout will be 25 percent to each Go Round and 50 percent to the finals.
- Participants may not change horses during an event.
- Each participant will be given the opportunity to ride in two Go Rounds. The top 20 horse and rider teams per division, per Go Round in the Teen, and the top 15 horse and rider teams per division, per Go Round in the Youth, will advance to the finals. In the second Go Round we will bump past those already qualified. Unfilled slots will not be pulled from the 1st Go. Riding once is an option. The finals will be a clean slate 4D barrel race. Your placement going into the finals has no bearing on your winning position. You may win up or win down.
- Participants may advance two horses to the finals per division. If you qualify more than twice in the same division, you may choose which horses go forward. The first (2) horses you qualify on will not be eligible to qualify in another round in another division.
- All participants are required to display their saddle numbers on the left leg side of their saddle pad/blanket and to wear their armbands at all times during competition.
- Failure to check in with gate officials makes you subject to disqualification.
- NBHA officials have the right to disqualify any uncontrolled horse which does not begin its performance within three minutes of the time the rider has been called. This rule does not apply to competitors who have not checked in with gate personnel.
- In the event of a tie for the Championship of any division, the tie breaker rule will apply.

Draw #'s and Stall assignments are on the back of this sheet.
